Program: - Elected Delegation

Rep. Russell Fry, House Seat 106 - spoke on Opiates (Opioid) and Heroin use problem that is facing the City of Myrtle Beach and Horry County.

Rep. Russell Fry also spoke on Automatic Stay the impact on businesses that come into South Carolina.

Sen. Stephen Goldfinch, District 34 – Economic Development with focuses on roads, taxes, education. Education is an important issue, the fact is, students of today have no soft skills, for example on how to answer the telephone properly. He is looking for a way to educate our students on the “soft skills” that are needed today through a technical school training program.

Rep. Greg Duckworth, House Seat 104 – spoke on Locksmith Legislative Bill that he had been working on. He also spoke on the sand coming into Myrtle Beach to rebuild our sand dunes, very important issue.

Rep. Alan Clemmons, House Seat 107 - spoke on the hunting of black bears, in the Coastal Carolina area, South Carolina. Alan Clemmons also shared with us that he was South Carolina’s representative in the Jerusalem Parliament to stand and support them. South Carolina Proudly Stands with Jerusalem!
